8.Into the village: Between work and celebration

In this part of the exhibition
you can see objects that tell us
how people lived in a village long ago.

In a village there are many people:
women, men, girls and boys.
In a village people work, go to school,
and also celebrate.

In the past, villages had workshops.
Workshops are old shops
where craftsmen worked.
The craftsmen were the owners of the shops
and sold things they had made.

For example, there was the carpenter's workshop, the tailor's workshop, the blacksmith's workshop, and others.

The blacksmith worked with iron.
In this part of the exhibition
you can see a lock made by a blacksmith.
It was used to close doors.
